THE THESIS PROSPECTUS EXAMINATION
The Thesis Prospectus Examination has the following objectives:
- to evaluate the feasibility of the candidate’s proposed research;
- to evaluate the competence of the candidate to carry out the proposed research.
This examination should be taken within 24 months of initial registration in the Ph.D. program (see sections 1.2.6 and 2.2.7 of the Graduate Program Guidelines for details).

THE EXAMINING COMMITTEE
- New
- Revised
The Examining Committee will consist of the Coordinator of Graduate Studies (or an appointee) as impartial chair, and three voting members which will include the supervisor(s) and two other members from the Faculty of the School of Graduate Studies and Research, and normally members of the Department. The main appointment of at least one voting member of the committee must be with this Department.
